There is a Mousetrap in the House!

A mouse looked through the crack in the wall to see the farmer and his wife open a package.

He was devastated to discover it was a mousetrap. Retreating to the farmyard, the mouse proclaimed the warning. "There is a mousetrap in the house!"

The chicken clucked and scratched, raised her head and said, "Mr. Mouse, I can tell this is a grave concern to you, but it is of no consequence to me. I cannot be bothered by it."

The mouse turned to the pig and told him. The pig sympathized, but said, "I am so very sorry, Mr. Mouse, but there is nothing I can do about it but pray. Be assured you are in my prayers."

The mouse turned to the cow and told him also. The cow said, "I'm sorry for you, but it's no skin off my nose."

That very night the sound of a mousetrap catching its prey was heard throughout the house. The farmer's wife rushed to see what was caught. In the darkness, she did not see it was a snake whose tail the trap had caught.

The snake bit the farmer's wife. The farmer rushed her to the hospital, and she returned home with a fever.

Everyone knows you treat a fever with fresh chicken soup, so the farmer took his hatchet to the farmyard for the soup's main ingredient. But his wife's sickness continued, so friends and neighbours came to sit with her around the clock. To feed them, the farmer butchered the pig. The farmer's wife did not get well. She died.

So many people came for her funeral, the farmer had the cow slaughtered to provide enough meat for all of them. The mouse looked upon it all from his crack in the wall with great sadness.

So, the next time you hear someone is facing a problem and think it doesn't concern you, remember—when one of us is threatened, we are all at risk. We are all involved in this journey called life. We must keep an eye out for one another and make an extra effort to encourage one another.

National Church Life Survey

The National Church Life Survey 2006 is a season where some half-a-million church attendees will reflect upon and share their experiences of church life.

Over 15 years the NCLS Research team has worked closely with many different Christian denominations to gather, analyse and report millions of survey responses from church attendees and leaders.

The Ingle Farm Community Church will take part in this survey on Sunday, August 27.
Please bring something for morning tea.

AGM

Please put in your diaries, on your fridge or bathroom mirror that the Church's AGM will be held on August 20th after the service.
