Pavement

Once upon a time, there was a man who spent half of his life getting rich. Hearing he could take none of it into Heaven, he was greatly distressed. The man pleaded in many prayers that God would make an exception.

Finally God said to the man, “Look, whatever you fit into a large black garbage bag you can bring into Heaven.”

The man joyfully spent the second half of his life accumulating gold, then he died. As he approached the pearly gates dragging his garbage bag, two angels stopped him. “Excuse me sir,” said one angel, clearing his throat. “Nobody’s allowed to bring anything into Heaven.”

The man straightened up and proudly announced, “I have received special permission from God to do so.”

The angels, being surprised, inquired of St Peter who said, “Yes, God has okayed this bag.”

The angels were understandably very curious as to what could be so important. “Excuse me, sir,” said one. “Could we see what you brought?”

The man nodded and opened his bag. Both angels peeked down into the bag, but quickly looked up with expressions of bewilderment as if they’d just seen the most preposterous thing.

Then one of them spluttered: “Pavement!”

SAMARITAN SHOPPING

The need is urgent!

Any non perishable food is needed.

True contentment is found,
not in having everything you want,
but in not wanting to have everything.

SAMARITAN SHOPPING

is a ministry where we can help those less fortunate than ourselves. We need non perishable food stuffs including long life (UHT) milk to make up food hampers for those who struggle to buy enough food to feed their families.
Just an extra tin or two of food each week when you do your weekly shopping would be a tremendous help.

If you have any questions, please contact Cath Lea.

Our patience will achieve more than our force.
