“I Will Come Again”

While on a South Pole expedition, British explorer Sir Ernest Shackleton left a few men on Elephant Island, promising that he would return. Later, when he tried to go back, huge icebergs blocked the way. But suddenly, as if by a miracle, an avenue opened in the ice and Shackleton was able to get through. His men, ready and waiting, quickly scrambled aboard. No sooner had the ship cleared the island than the ice crashed together behind them.

Contemplating their narrow escape, the explorer said to his men, “It was fortunate you were all packed and ready to go!” They replied, “We never gave up hope. Whenever the sea was clear of ice, we rolled up our sleeping bags and reminded each other, ‘He may come today.’”

Jesus Christ’s first coming to earth is an indisputable fact of history. His death, burial and resurrection are also facts of history as all were verified by many reliable witnesses. At His ascension back into heaven two angels appeared to Jesus’ disciples and followers saying, “Men of Galilee ... why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.” (Acts 1:11)

Jesus also had promised that He would come again. In speaking about heaven He said, “In My Father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with Me that you also may be where I am.” (John 14: 2,3)

And God’s Word also assures us that Jesus is coming back again to take all His true followers to be with Him forever in heaven.

Jesus is coming again. What if it were today? Would you be ready?
